FOR GENERATIONS TO COME – DAILY PRAYERS

It has been a blessing to us to serve as the Prayer Team for this campaign. Thank you for your prayers over Ascension Lutheran and this campaign—for generations to come.

Prayer Team: Lindsey Bergner, Chairman; Emma Chrismer, Madeline Drake | November - December 2020

November 8 - Launch Sunday

Dear Lord,

As we begin this next step in our ministry, let our hearts center on your everlasting love. Our mission in this campaign is not to renovate a building; our mission is to further Your kingdom. We pray that You open all our hearts to continually serve You and witness to the world around us, so that all future generations of believers will be united in Your love.

Lord, You are so good, and Your love and faithfulness endure forever. I pray that we always give thanks to You, praising and glorifying Your name throughout this campaign. Let us worship you with gladness. Let us continually rely on Your love and Your will, for generations to come. In Your name we pray, Amen.

November 9 - Monday

The Lord has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all (Psalm 103:19).

Dear Lord,

We give thanks to You as we begin this next step in our ministry. With joy, we know that Your throne is eternally established in heaven! Confident in this, we pray that You daily guide us in our thoughts, words, and actions to glorify You. In every part of our ministry, we seek to spread Your love all around us, praying that everyone will know Your kingdom rules over all, for generations to come, for eternity. Amen.

November 10 - Tuesday

Give praise to the Lord, proclaim his name; make known among the nations what he has done. Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts (1 Chronicles 16: 8-9).

Dear Lord,

Just as David praised You for the return of the Ark of the Covenant in this song of thanksgiving, let us similarly praise You and proclaim Your name. In our ministry, we pray that You work through us so all nations and generations to come will know You and all You have done. We pray that everyone will sing praises to Your name. Through our ministry, let us daily proclaim Your love and wondrous acts, so that everyone may live in Your truth. Amen.

November 11 - Wednesday

Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice. Look to the Lord and his strength; seek his face always (1 Chronicles 16:10-11).

Dear Lord,

As with David's song of thanksgiving, I pray we all similarly rejoice in You through every part of our lives. Let us glorify Your holy name, and let our hearts rejoice as we seek You and Your will in our lives and ministry. Lord, we look to You for strength, wisdom, and guidance. In every part of our ministry, for all generations to come, let us seek Your face. Amen.

November 12 - Thursday

He remembers his covenant forever, the promise he made, for a thousand generations, the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.(1 Chronicles 16: 15-16).

Dear Lord,

As David believed in Your promises, let us always believe in You, knowing that You keep every promise as You did with David, Abraham, and Isaac. I pray we daily rejoice in the New Covenant You made with us through Jesus, sharing Your truth for all generations to come. Amen.

November 13 - Friday

Sing to the Lord, all the earth; proclaim his salvation day after day. Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples (1 Chronicles 16: 23-24).

Dear Lord,

Let us sing your praises every day, through all the earth! We rejoice in Your salvation through Your Son Jesus Christ, and we pray that we can share Your redeeming truth with all people of all nations. As You work through us, let our ministry and our hearts reflect Your everlasting love, so that all generations to come know of Your marvelous deeds. Amen.

November 14 - Saturday

Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:2-3).

Dear Lord,

In our ministry, I pray we are daily humble with each other in our walk with You. Like Paul, let us be patient in Your timing, always bearing the trials we face and loving one another as we keep our hearts centered on You. Lord, only You can give us peace, so help us keep the unity of the Spirit as we seek your peace, for generations to come. Amen.

November 15 - Sunday

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all (Ephesians 4:4-6).

Gracious Lord,

In these uncertain times, we pray that You would remind us of our unity through Your salvation. Let us remember that worship isn't about the building; worship is about joining together as one Spirit in Your everlasting love. Even as we worship from home, we are forever united together through Jesus. Keep us steadfast as we follow You, sustained by the one true faith and by our baptism. With this hope, we praise You as the God and Father of us all, for every generation to come. Amen.

November 16 - Monday

Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it (Isaiah 30:21).

Dear Lord,

We pray for your guidance in our words and actions. Let us learn to listen to Your Word and Your voice as You daily direct us. We pray that You would lead us in the way we should go, so that we are not tempted to turn to the right hand nor the left. Let us keep our eyes fixed on You, our ears attentive to Your voice, and our hearts centered on Your love, for generations to come. Amen.

November 17 - Tuesday

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth. Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs (Psalm 100:1-2).

Dear Lord,

I pray we praise Your name for all to hear, singing with joy that only You can give us. As we daily worship You, let us be glad and come before You with love in our hearts as we glorify Your name. Even in these difficult times, let our actions and our words reflect Your love and grace. All the earth is invited to serve and praise You, so let us shout for joy for all generations to come. Amen.

November 18 - Wednesday

Know that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture (Psalm 100:3).

Dear Lord,

In these trying times, let us never forget that You are in control. Lord, You are God, our Creator and Savior. We are beautifully and wonderfully made in Your Image, and we belong to You. Since we are saved by You, we pray that You would use us to further Your kingdom, giving us the words and the heart to share Your Word, for generations to come. Amen.

November 19 - Thursday

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name (Psalm 100:4).

Dear Lord,

I pray that we daily thank and praise You for Your love and grace. You daily provide for us and protect us, even when we fail You. Forgive us when we fall short in the name of Your Son, and let us daily seek Your face to be a light to everyone around us. Help us to stay confident in Your hope and let us come before you with thanksgiving even in trying times, praising, and glorifying Your name for generations to come. Amen.

November 20 - Friday

For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations (Psalm 100:5).

Dear Lord,

Let us always remember Your goodness, knowing You are with us each day in every part of our lives. Though we live in a world of constant change, we can always rely on Your steadfast faithfulness. I pray we forever have faith in You, for while the world is temporary, Your love endures for eternity. Help us daily reflect Your constant love and faithfulness. Lord, let us be vessels in sharing Your Word and proclaiming your salvation through all generations to come. Amen.

November 21 - Saturday

The King will reply, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40).

Dear Lord,

We pray that You would empower us to serve others, letting our lives overflow with Your mercy, love, and compassion. Help us care for every person, for though none of us deserve it, You daily give us grace and love. Please be with us, giving us wisdom in reaching out to others with the same compassion and care that you taught us through Your Son. Let us continually serve You, sharing Your love for all generations to come. Amen.

November 22 - Sunday

But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. For as in Adam all dies, so in Christ all will be made alive (1 Corinthians 15:20-22).

Gracious Lord,

Thank You for Your forgiveness. Although we are all born in sin, because of the death and resurrection of Your Son, we know we will be made alive and will see You face to face. Death has no power over us because of Your gift of grace. Your Son's death on the cross paid the price for our sin, and He rose again from the dead as a firstfruit of all those who place their faith in You. Help us come to You in prayer for thanksgiving and also for repentance. Let us continually reflect on Your gift of grace, and let us always place our faith in You, for all generations to come. Amen.

November 23 - Monday

My son, do not forget my teaching, but keep my commands in your heart, for they will prolong your life many years and bring you peace and prosperity (Proverbs 3:1-2).

Dear Lord,

Knowing that Solomon wrote this proverb as a direction from father to son, let us similarly take it as a direction from You, our Heavenly Father. Let us always live in obedience to Your will and Your teaching and help us keep You at the center of our hearts. Though You don't promise a trouble-free life here on earth, we have eternal peace and prosperity in heaven through Your salvation. No matter what trials we face, help us daily live with the knowledge that we always have Your peace and love, as does every believer for all generations to come. Amen.

November 24 - Tuesday

Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. Then you will win favor and a good name in the sight of God and man (Proverbs 3:3-4).

Dear Lord,

I pray that we daily rely on Your love and faithfulness. By filling our lives with Your truth, let us always grant others the mercy and grace You give us. Write Your love on our hearts, Lord, and give us Your guidance in sharing this love with everyone around us. Let us always seek Your favor and Your will before the world's so that our lives are open to Your transformational power. As our hearts are transformed by Your love and faithfulness, utilize us for Your glory as you transform hearts for generations to come. Amen.

November 25 - Wednesday

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Dear Lord,

We pray, "Thy will be done." Help us trust in You and Your will every day. We often seek control over our lives and lean on our desires rather than what You desire for us. We daily fall short of Your glory, but please grant us Your wisdom, guiding our paths toward You. Let us consciously invite You into our lives every day, deliberately praying that Your will be done in our lives. Help our hearts trust in You, and let us always seek Your will before our own. Guide us in daily submitting ourselves and our lives to You, for generations to come. Amen.

November 26 - Thursday

Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord and shun evil. This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones (Proverbs 3:7-8).

Dear Lord,

Help us rely on Your understanding rather than our own desires, for Your wisdom is far greater than our own. Let us daily trust in You so that we are drawn away from sin towards Your everlasting love. I pray we worship You in reverence and awe, surrendering our lives to You. Only You can give us peace, so let us continually seek Your peace, for generations to come. Amen.

November 27 - Friday

Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled to overflowing, and your vats will brim over with new wine (Proverbs 3:9-10).

Dear Lord,

We know that You are the provider of all good things. Every blessing -- including all of our possessions -- belongs to You. I pray we rely on You with our whole heart and honor You with generosity in every part of our lives. Help us be cheerful givers, offering the firstfruits of our lives to You. Let us always trust in You as our provider, for generations to come. Amen.

November 28 - Saturday

My son, do not despise the Lord's discipline, and do not resent his rebuke, because the Lord disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in (Proverbs 3:11-12).

Dear Lord,

Help us listen to Your discipline so that we can follow Your will for our lives. In the trials we may face and the suffering we may endure, let us always remember Christ's suffering for our salvation. No trouble we face in this life compares to Your love, so help us always rely on Your promises and unending love. Grant us wisdom in heeding Your discipline and teaching, so that we can repent of all sin and live in Your love, for generations to come. Amen.

November 29 - Sunday

Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age (Matthew 28:18-20).

Gracious Lord,

Thank You for the gift of Your Son, whom You have given all authority in heaven and on earth. You are the way, and the truth, and the life! We confidently trust in Your promise, knowing that You are always with us. Help us read Your Word with open hearts so that we can be instructed and obedient as one of Your disciples. Grant us Your wisdom in discerning opportunities You give us to share Your Word. Guide our hearts and give us courage so that we can make disciples of all nations, for generations to come. Amen.

November 30 - Monday

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters. Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it (Hebrews 13:1-2).

Dear Lord,

Help us abound in Your love and in love for one another. You daily give us grace, so let us extend Your grace to every person we know and every person we will meet in the future. Guide our hearts as we serve all of those around us, so that we glorify Your name and speak Your truth in love. We know that every person was created in Your image, Lord, so help us to reach out beyond our friends to even strangers. Help us build lasting relationships and grow in love for You, extending Your truth throughout the world for generations to come. Amen.

December 1 – Tuesday

Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." So we say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?" (Hebrews 13:5-6).

Dear Lord,

Help us always rejoice in Your goodness and the blessings you've bestowed on us. As sinners, we often covet what we don't have, so guide us in seeking Your love over worldly possessions or earthly approval. Let us daily seek Your face! In these uncertain times, we may also look at the broken world around us and be doubtful, even hopeless. Heavenly Father, give us Your strength, reminding us that You are always with us and will never leave or forsake us. Let us find our joy in You alone, relying on You as our guide and helper for all generations to come. Amen.

December 2 – Wednesday

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever (Hebrews 13:8).

Dear Lord,

Thank you for Your steadfast faithfulness. We know that You are the same yesterday, today, and forever; we can always rely on Your unchanging ways. Even with the uncertainty and suffering all around us, we can always depend on You. Lord, only You can give us peace, so let us always place our hope and trust in You. No matter what trials we face, we know that nothing can separate us from Your love, and we know that You are always with us, for all generations to come. Amen.

December 3 – Thursday

Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of Praise—the fruit of lips that openly profess His name. And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased (Hebrews 13:15-16).

Dear Lord,

We thank You for the New Covenant through Your Son; we have a relationship with You because of Your great love for us! Help us honor You with daily sacrifices both personal and meaningful to us in our own lives. Lord, let us daily worship You, praising You with our thoughts, professing Your name with our words, and glorifying You in our actions. Help us do good for others, serving and loving to the glory of Your name. Guide us in sharing Your goodness and love with everyone we encounter, for generations to come. Amen.

December 4 – Friday

He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God (Micah 6:8).

Dear Lord,

Let us daily be a living representation of You and a light in this world that urgently needs Your love and peace. We cannot be just, merciful, or humble to others without Your love in our hearts. Only You can work miracles within us, so guide us in living a transformed life in relationship with You, giving You all the glory. Help us always be an image of You, reflecting Your character by acting justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly for all generations to come. Amen.

December 5 – Saturday

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms (1 Peter 4:10).

Dear Lord,

Thank You for the Holy Spirit dwelling within us and the spiritual gifts you have bestowed on us through Your grace! We are all blessed with special gifts from You, so provide us with strength in using all opportunities You give us for sharing our gifts with others. Humble us in utilizing the gifts, guiding our hearts to serve and strengthen those around us with Your love. Lord, let our gifts we received praise Your holy name and in every way honor You, for generations to come. Amen.

December 6 – Sunday

Just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many (Matthew 20:28).

Gracious Savior,

You gave Your life as a ransom for every one of us, redeeming us all from our sins. We could never be worthy of such a gift, but Your grace gives us endless joy! Let our lives honor Your sacrifice and give You all the glory. Teach us to be servants, always placing others' needs before ourselves and our own desires. Let us serve You above all and daily reflect Your grace, mercy, and peace as we walk humbly with You. As Your faithful servants, let Your light shine within us, so that we pour out Your love for all generations to come. Amen.

December 7 – Monday

Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).

Dear Lord,

Let us always rejoice in You! In happiness and sadness let us find our peace in Your gift of grace. We will face trouble and endure sorrow, but our joy depends not on circumstances but only on You, our faithful Father. Help us pray without ceasing, living in constant conversation with You as our hearts and minds center on Your will. As we face uncertainty, sadness, and sin in this broken world, we cannot give thanks for affliction. But guide us to know that we can give thanks in everything because of Your faithfulness. We know that even in our darkest times we can depend on Your faith, hope, and love—for all generations to come. Amen.

December 8 – Tuesday

Do not quench the Spirit. Do not treat prophecies with contempt but test them all; hold on to what is good, reject every kind of evil (1 Thessalonians 5:19-22).

Dear Lord,

Thank you for the gift of the Holy Spirit dwelling within us; let the fire of the Spirit never be quenched in our hearts! Please help us to avoid doubt and fear, knowing that you are always near. We pray You are constantly at the center of our hearts and that we feel Your presence in every moment. Help us be open to Your voice; let us acknowledge others' advice and test it according to Your Word. Lord, teach us to turn from evil and cling to what is good, relying on Your wisdom and will for all generations to come. Amen.

December 9 – Wednesday

May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful, and he will do it (1 Thessalonians 5:23-24).

Dear Lord,

Let us always find our peace in You, for You are the only source of true peace and joy. You have redeemed us, and we pray You purify us through Your grace. We know we don't have the power to sanctify; only You can transform our hearts. Lord, let us be a temple of the Holy Spirit, and help us dedicate our spirit, soul, body and every part of our lives to You. Help us to always place our trust in You, knowing You are faithful for all generations to come. Amen.

December 10 – Thursday

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dreamed. Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them. The Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy." (Psalm 126:1-3).

Dear Lord,

As those returning from exile sang your praises in this Psalm, let us daily sing Your praises for redeeming us! We pray You fill our hearts with joy; let us overflow with laughter and songs of praise for Your steadfast love. As other people observe us, help us shine with Your love so they know that You, Lord, are our provider and sole source of joy. Teach us to reflect on all of the great things You've done for us, and let us daily count our blessings with the knowledge of our salvation through Your gift of grace. May You alone fill us with joy for generations to come! Amen.

December 11 – Friday

Restore our fortunes, Lord, like streams in the Negev. Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy. Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them (Psalm 126:4-6).

Dear Lord,

We praise You this morning, knowing that You are moving within us and working on our hearts. Though we face trouble and sadness, we know that You will turn our tears into songs of joy. When we sow seeds of sorrow and face circumstances we cannot handle on our own, let us turn to You alone, having confidence in Your harvest of joy through grace. In good and bad, and through every chapter in our lives, let us trust in You and Your steadfast love for all generations to come. Amen

December 12 – Saturday

I delight greatly in the Lord; my soul rejoices in my God. For he has clothed me with garments of salvation and arrayed me in a robe of his righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels (Isaiah 61:10).

Dear Lord,

Let us always delight and rejoice in You! We are clothed in salvation through Your grace, and we thank You for Your forgiveness. We pray You robe us in Your righteousness and adorn us with Your love and peace. Thank you for the gift of Your son, our Redeemer, who reigns eternally and lives within our hearts for all generations to come. Amen.

December 13 – Sunday

Know therefore that the Lord your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations to those who love him and keep his commandments (Deuteronomy 7:9).

Gracious Lord,

We know that You keep Your promises! Let us have faith in You as our steadfast Father, knowing that You are the one and only God. Guide us with Your wisdom so that we keep Your commands and follow Your will for our Let us confidently place our trust in You alone, living in Your love for a thousand generations to come. Amen.

PRAYER PROMPTS – YOUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL ROOM

CONSIDER PRAYING OVER THE CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND YOUNG ADULTS OF THE PRATT COMMUNITY AND HOW WE, ASCENSION LUTHERAN, CAN REACH OUT TO THEM—*FOR GENERATIONS TO COME.

Proverbs 22:6

Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.

Deuteronomy 6: 4-9

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Matthew 19:14

But Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.”

Psalms 34:11

Come, O children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

CONSIDER PRAYING OVER THE FAMILIES OF THE PRATT COMMUNITY AND HOW WE, ASCENSION LUTHERAN, CAN REACH OUT TO THEM, TEACHING THEM TO GROW IN FAITH IN CHRIST — *FOR GENERATIONS TO COME.

Proverbs 1:1-7 The Beginning of Knowledge

The proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel: To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight, to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity; to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth—Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance, to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Proverbs 9:9

Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser; teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.

John 5:39

You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me,

Matthew 11:29

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Philippians 4:9

What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

Deuteronomy 12:28

Be careful to obey all these words that I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the Lord your God.

Romans 12:2

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Acts 2:42 The Fellowship of the Believers

And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

CONSIDER PRAYING OVER THE FAMILIES OF THE PRATT COMMUNITY AND HOW WE, ASCENSION LUTHERAN, CAN REACH OUT TO THEM IN FRIENDSHIP AND FELLOWSHIP AND BUILD RELATIONSHIPS AS THEY BECOME A PART OF THE BODY OF CHRIST — *FOR GENERATIONS TO COME.

Titus 3:14

And let our people learn to devote themselves to good works, so as to help cases of urgent need, and not be unfruitful.

Psalm 100:2

Serve the LORD with gladness!

Psalm 37:3

Trust in the Lord, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness.

Proverbs 3:27

Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.

Ecclesiastes 3:12

I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live

Micah 6:8

He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Luke 6:37-38

“Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you.”

Galatians 6:9-10

And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Hebrews 13:16

Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

PRAYER PROMPTS – SANCTUARY

CONSIDER PRAYING OVER OUR CHURCH AND HOW WE, ASCENSION LUTHERAN, CAN WORSHIP, PRAISE, THANK, AND GLORIFY GOD IN THIS PLACE — FOR GENERATIONS TO COME.

1 Corinthians 1:9

God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 John 1:7

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

1 Chronicles 16:29

Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; bring an offering and come before him! Worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness

2 Chronicles 7:3

When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the Lord on the temple, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement and worshiped and gave thanks to the Lord, saying, "For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever."

Nehemiah 9:6

"You are the Lord, you alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and you preserve all of them; and the host of heaven worships you.

Psalms 29:2

Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; worship the Lord in the splendor of holiness.

Psalms 95:6

Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

Psalms 99:5

Exalt the Lord our God; worship at his footstool! Holy is he!

John 4:24

God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

Romans 12:1 A Living Sacrifice

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.
